

CIACCI PICCOLOMINI D'ARAGONA

Ciacci Piccolomini is one of the most sought-after producers in all of Italy. This ancient estate has 35 hectares of superior holdings in the prized Castelnuovo dell'Abate zone, including the 'Pianrosso' vineyard (meaning 'red field,' a reference to the iron rich soils) and the 'Fonte' vineyard, which produces grapes for the Rosso di Montalcino.

*"Brother-and-sister team Paolo and Lucia Bianchini continue to make excellent Brunellos in the tradition of their father, Giuseppe, who died in 2004. They are better employing their new modern cellars, which were completed last year, and continue to maintain their south-facing vineyards at near pristine levels. The Brunellos emphasize finesse and balance, with layers of ultrafine tannins and subtle ripe fruit, yet they age incredibly well. The Bianchini family was gifted its Brunello estate in 1985 by Countess Elda Ciacci Piccolomini d'Aragona, who had no heirs; Giuseppe had been the estate manager." — The Wine Spectator

*"Ciacci Piccolomini d'Aragona is one of the headline estates of Montalcino" — The Wine Advocate

The vineyard consists of medium grain soil with good levels of marl, dating from the Eocene period at an altitude that ranges from 240 to 360 meters. The "Pianrosso" plot of the vineyard consist of heavy iron deposits.

CIACCI PICCOLOMINI D'ARAGONA "FABIVS" SANT'ANTINO DOC

100% Syrah planted in the "del Conte" vineyard where there is an excellent terroir and microclimate that are particularly suited to this varietal. Aged for 12+ months in small French oak barriques. Dedicated to Fabvis de' Vecchis, the bishop of Montalcino, who built the original residence on the Estate in 1672. This wine was a dream come true for Giuseppe Bianchini, who was a great fan of French Syrahs.

2016 Review: 92 Points, The Wine Advocate: "A pure and impressive expression of Syrah. Syrah always tends to show opulent richness and succulence, and although you certainly get that here, I'm also reminded of its Tuscan roots. It tends to be more compact and linear overall. This wine pulls in opposite directions, and that's what makes it most interesting. You will recognize those varietal characteristics for sure, but they are ultimately overridden by the wine's Tuscan identity. This is terrific value."*

2017 Review: 90 Points, The Wine Enthusiast: (text of review to be released April 2022)*

2019 Review: 91 Points, The Wine Advocate: "A rare look at Syrah from the cool Montalcino climate, the 2019 Sant'Antimo Fabius is packed tight with blackberry and black cherry along with spice, sweet tobacco and smoked bacon. There's a lot going on aromatically speaking, but the wine stays clear of the heavier black pepper or cured leather aromas that you often get in New World Syrah. I love the soft texture, freshness and tension that this extremely well-priced wine exhibits. The Ciacci Piccolomini d'Aragona estate is located in a rather cool location with south-facing vines and well-draining galestro soils on the back side of Castelbuovo dell'Abate. I always like to think of this tiny hilltop hamlet as the place where the day's sunbeams shine in Montalcino before sunset. This estate is certified for organic farming."*
